Being motivated and setting goals are both necessary ingredients for success, but I have come to the realization that those don't lie at the core of self-actualization. Instead, it is the attitude from which all must begin. Attitude is everything. Without the right attitude set in place, everything else is easily shattered.

The Night That Changed My Life - Attitude Is Everything

Sure, attitude is important. However, the major anecdote of the book is how the author got a job at IBM with the help of his cousin who was an IBM employee and arranged several mock-interviews (and real interviews), so we can see that attitude isn't everything. Attitude is certainly something, but so is nepotism.
