The Declaration of the Rights of Man and of the Citizen (1789) I-2 VII. No man should be accused, arrested, or held in confinement, except in cases determined by the law, and according to the forms which it has prescribed. All who promote, solicit, execute, or cause to be executed, arbitrary orders, ought to be punished, government of law, not men. But what is meant by "a government of law, not men"? Aren't laws made by men and women in their roles as legislators? Don't men and women enforce the law as police officers or interpret the law as judges? And don't all of us choose to follow, or not to follow, the law as we go about our daily lives?
